An easy 45 minute drive south of Hobart lays the picturesque country township of Cygnet. Cuddled into the charm of the surrounding hills, with its own little slice of the Southern Ocean, Cygnet's stunning setting provides a creative paradise for many local artists. Their doors are open for you to explore. You will love the diversity of the Cygnet Art Trail, which gives you the opportunity to meet the makers in unique studios or galleries and don't miss the Art Hotel, Near and Far, Molly Murphys and Home and Body in the main street for more amazing Art and Craft.

Discover the international flair of this dynamic population of farmers, small business owners, artisans and musicians. Be inspired by pristine unspoiled beaches only minutes away. If you're a boating enthusiast, find safe mooring in the port of the bay where dolphins frolic and seabirds play. Enjoy a relaxed tour on quiet country roads, take in the wineries and cafes featuring delicious fresh local produce, lose yourself in the past at friendly museums or stretch your legs down by the water; come for the day or stay for a while.

Cygnet truly is the hidden gem of the Huon...so what are you waiting for?
